David's Rose Selection Tip:

Most gardeners have the easiest to-care-for roses when they plant Shrubs, Groundcovers, Hybrid Rugosas and Miniatures.

Hybrid Teas, English, and Grandifloras need the most care and protection while the Floribunda, Climbing, and Polyanthas fall in the part-time attention group.

Rose Classifications

F-Floribunda: Medium sized flowers mostly borne in clusters, more compact in habit, medium length stems.

Gr-Grandiflora: Large flowers borne in clusters, taller in habit, individual stems are suitable for cutting.

R-Hybrid Rugosa: Exceptionally hardy, vigorous, usually upright compact plants. Most are recurrent bloomers.

HT-Hybrid Tea: Large flowers generally borne one per stem, medium to tall in habit, long cutting stems.

S-Shrub: Free blooming plants broadly varying in size and form, usually good disease resistance & hardiness. Most are grown on their own root.

GC-Groundcover: Low mounding habit with continuous bloom. Excellent for slopes & low accents.

Rose Growing Tips

- Mulch your roses enough to cover the bud graft for winter protection.
- Remember to water your roses, and all other plants, through the winter if we get less than an inch of moisture during the month.
- When pruning, if the cane is 1/8 inch and larger, seal it.
- Stop deadheading your roses the 1st of September.
- Prune roses coming out of winter April 15th. Take only 30% of the shrub at any one time. Fertilize at the same time and pull the mulch away from the graft. Deadhead throughout the summer for continual bloom.
- Fertilize roses through the growing season. Heavy bloomers are heavy feeders.
- Spray dormant oil to suffocate overwintering insect eggs late winter or early spring.
- While roses can be grown in most sites, too much afternoon shade can allow mildew to occur. Being too wet can also cause numerous problems.
